Celebrating 106 Years of the Academy of Prosthodontics

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that I write to you to invite you to the upcoming Academy of Prosthodontics meeting. This is the oldest Prosthodontic organization and I have the privilege of serving as its 100th president. The members of our group represent the top echelon of the prosthodontic practitioners and come from many different countries from around the world. Membership is by invitation and is a lengthy process. With this in mind, the best of the best people are at this meeting. Why not join us and meet with the giants in the field. Learn not only about research and clinical dentistry, but see how our outreach programs bring smiles to those who could not otherwise afford it in many parts of the world.

Our meeting this year is in Denver which has much to offer on its own and this will be quite evident when you review some of the non educational events. The program itself has been developed by Dr. Carlo Ercoli and touches on many parts of dental milieu. This meeting has been one that I have been attending since 1985 and is a highlight in my calendar. Make it a highlight in yours. Come and join your friends at the Academy for this four-day event.

I look forward to seeing you there.
